

BAD MAN PACKED GUN INTO COURT

And Now Faces Concealed Weapon Charge As Well As Taking Girl From Parents

Gardner Jones who lives on Howard's Creek, across the river in Clark county, must have thought when he came to Richmond Tuesday morning, that the officials of Madison county are afraid to tackle a real "bad" man, and that he could bluff them out on the charge against him of holding little 14-year-old Maggie Stone against the will of her parents, and of having used abusive and threatening language against Mrs. Stone. Anyway, Jones came into county court with a big gun in his pocket, and he now faces a charge of carrying concealed deadly weapon as well as other charges.

Although Jones was caught "dead to rights" in the court room with the gun on him, Judge Price released him on $500 bond to come back Friday morning to answer all three charges against him. He gave a cash bond of $200 and his brother signed a check for $300, the remainder of the bond. Jones first came into court without a lawyer but afterward secured Attorney C. C. Wallace to represent him. County Attorney Jackson says that he will insist that the extreme maximum penalty of the law be given Jones on the concealed weapon charge alone.

Mr. Jones is charged with having taken Maggie Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stone, who live on the W. C. Finney farm in the Shearer section, from the Black school house. The girl's parents say that when they got out a warrant against him to make him bring the girl home that Jones threatened to kill Stone and his young son if the writ was not dismissed. Mrs. Stone says that Jones cursed her "for everything he could think of" and threatened her also. They came in to get a peace warrant against him also, and the case was to have been tried Tuesday morning.

Jones came into court with a bluster and swagger and was very bold in his talk. He told County Attorney Jackson that he couldn't make him do anything, and when the peace warrant was served on him, he objected to being searched, saying he had "nothing on him." Sheriff Pete Whitlock, however, grabbed him by the arm and found a big .45 pistol in his hip pocket, and promptly confiscated it. A warrant was immediately sworn out against Jones, charging him with carrying concealed a deadly weapon. County Attorney Jackson urged that he be immediately convicted on his offense and sent to jail, as it was a most flagrant offense with no defense whatever possible.

Jones, however, claimed that he needed time to make his defense to the other charges and so he was allowed to go till Friday on $500 bond. Jones remarked that they treated people "rather rough over here." It is reported he had been considered a "bad man" over in his section. He is said to have moved to Clark county some time ago from the mountains. He married an older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stone. The younger girl had been staying with them, waiting upon her sister, who had been ill, it is reported, until school began when her parents wanted her to at home to attend school. Jones is then said to have gone to the school and to have taken the child home with him. He refuses to admit he has her, and told the officers they would have to prove it on him. The teacher, Miss Williams, and a number of pupils who saw the child leave, are said to have identified Jones as the man who came and took her away in a buggy.

LODGE SPEAKS AGAINST LEAGUE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Aug. 12—Describing the League of Nations as a "deformed experiment upon a noble purpose," Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee and Republican leader in the Senate, declared in a Senate speech today that there were features of the league covenant which "as an American" he never could accept. Creating not a league of peace but an alliance embracing many "provisions for war," the covenant in its present form, he asserted, would kill the Monroe Doctrine, nullify any possibility of withdrawal from membership, impair the sovereign power of deciding domestic questions, and "plunge the United States into every controversy and conflict on the face of the globe."

DEMAND CHANGES IN WHEAT STANDARDS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Aug. 12—Demands that changes be made in the government wheat standards under the price guarantee act "so as not to penalize every grower of wheat" were made today in a statement prepared by Chairman Gronna and representatives of farm organizations and approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee. The statement said a grave injustice is being done the farmer and who in "selling his wheat crop is selling his entire season's labor." The policy of the Federal Grain Corporation to "control the domestic market price against further advances" with manipulation of the system of grades, dwells in injustice, the statement asserts, to deny the farmers "access to a free market where he can secure his actual cost of production." Wheat shranked by heat, it is explained, is graded low and brings a cut price yet goes into the best patent flour thereby "defrauding the producers and not benefitting the consumers."

HOT MASS MEETING DEMANDS WINCHESTER SUPERINTENDENT'S SCALP
Winchester, Ky. August 12—In one of the stormiest mass meetings ever held in Clark county the resignation of Prof. O. H. Harris, superintendent of the Winchester public schools, was demanded by a crowd of several hundred men and women who assembled in the court house last night. Mrs. J. E. Grubbs, formerly president of the Winchester Woman's Club and spokesman for the women of the city who were interested in the meeting, made the demand for Prof. Harris to resign, and it was followed by adoption of resolutions charging that Prof. Harris sixteen years ago had been guilty of an act against Miss Lizzie Harris, a niece, then 13 or 14 years old.

The resolution declared that Miss Harris had made the charge against her uncle before a grand jury in Rowan county in 1903, and that an indictment was voted, but Prof. Harris was not arraigned for trial. Prof. Harris, who also is a member of the State Textbook Commission, declared this afternoon, when he learned that the resolution would be offered tonight, that he is innocent of the charge made by the young woman, and that he welcomed an investigation of the Winchester Board of Education. Prof. Harris is married and has three children. He has lived in Winchester six years.

OLD TIME BANK ROBBERY PULLED OFF IN WEST KENTUCKY

(By Associated Press)
Greenville, Ky., Aug. 12—John Wells, arrested after three men had held up and robbed the Citizens Bank at South Carrollton yesterday the authorities say, has confessed and asserted the plot was hatched in Louisville. The two other men were not captured and none of the $20,000 in government bonds and $8,000 in cash taken from the bank has been recovered.

The robbery took place while most of the population of South Carrollton was attending a circus. Three men, poorly disguised as negroes, entered the Citizens Bank of South Carrollton, held up the employees and obtained $7,000 and $20,000 in Liberty bonds.

John Wells, 20 years old, was captured on Green River after a chase by several hundred men and after Mack Ashby, a policeman, was shot in the leg by one of the robbers.

A posse of several hundred men is scouring the Green river bottoms for the other men. The bandits entered the bank when no one was present except Paul Whitmer and Irwin Barnes, assistant cashiers. Calling hands up, the robbers produced revolvers to enforce the command. The bank employees were then covered by two of the robbers while the third procured cash from the safe. After obtaining the loot the robbers attempted to lock the employees in the vault, but failed because they could not work the combination.

A passerby gave the alarm and the robbers fled. Ashby pursued them and they fired on him inflicting a slight wound in the leg. The bandits jumped into a car that had been stolen from Bud Alfin, and attempted to make their escape. The car failed to operate and was abandoned. The robbers jumped out and fled to the Green river bottoms.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE HERE NEXT WEEK

The annual Madison county teachers' institute will be held in Richmond next week. The meetings will be held in the auditorium of Eastern Kentucky State Normal School. The institute this year will be conducted by Prof. R. S. Eubank, one of the best known educators in the state and an experienced institute man. Prof. Eubank is well known in Madison county. He carried it by a good majority in the recent primary in his race for state superintendent of public instruction, in which he was nosed out by narrow margin. A full attendance of the Madison county teachers is expected as the school law requires that all shall attend institute sessions each year.

The colored teachers' institute was held last week, in conjunction with the colored chautauqua, and was a splendid success in every way. The instructor who had been engaged failed to appear at the last moment, so Prof. Edwards and Harris took charge and did some most successful work, pleasing all. Several fine addresses were delivered by chautauqua speakers, including Prof. L. H. Harris, of Louisville, and Henry A. Laine, Madison's gifted and very efficient colored farm demonstrator, of College Hill. There are 23 colored schools in Madison county and all were represented, and some fine work was done by their teachers who enter wholeheartedly into their work. Miss Giles, of Berea, had a part on the program one day and delighted all who heard her story-telling.
